Special Thanks go to:

Leo Lichtman for all the years he printed our programs and other Folk Club publications. Happy Retirement!; We'd also like to thank the Principal, Vice Principal and teachers of Roosevelt Middle School for their long-standing involvement in making the festival a success, and our Vendors for all their support.

Most of all, a very special thanks to all the unnamed volunteers who contribute their time during the Festival to make it happen. We truly appreciate your efforts!

The San Francisco Free Folk Festival History

For 28 years the San Francisco Free Folk festival has been a true grassroots effort. All performers, workshop leaders, live mix sound technicians and event organizers volunteer their time, allowing this event to remain free. It takes more than 200 volunteers, including instructors and performers, to make this event an annual success.

Of all the folk festivals, the San Francisco Free Folk Festival is unique. Visitors here may participate in crafts, dance and singing, and music jams, as well as enjoy performances by leading lights of folk, new acoustic, blues and international music.

Members of the San Francisco Folk Music Club started this event in 1976. It outgrew its first home at the Hall of Flowers, and moved to Fort Mason, where it stayed for 13 more years. In 1996, the event moved from the John Adams Campus to its current home at Roosevelt Middle School. Last year's Festival drew between 2,000 and 3,000 people who attended this great two day event.

The San Francisco Free Folk Festival, like the San Francisco Folk Music Club, is nothing without its many volunteers. They are the backbone of the organization, providing their skills as performers, instructors, sound and light technicians, organizers, publicists, designers, programmers and printers. If you would like to volunteer for the Festival next year, please contact the San Francisco Folk Music Club at 415-661-2217 or check out our website at www.sffolkfest.org.

The Main Stage – Saturday

Ray Bierl – Singer & songwriter of the famous Hillbillies From Mars. In 1991 he recorded “Cowboy Dancing”, a collection of western-flavored songs along with fiddle tunes from a variety of traditions. His musical influences include: Pete Seeger, Hank Williams & Woodie Guthrie. 5:20PM

The Brassworks Band – A full brass quintet performing a wide range of musical styles: renaissance, baroque, classical & romantic, folk & fiddle tunes, marches, ragtime, Dixieland, blues, swing, rock, Motown, Latin, Broadway show tunes and concert works. The Band’s specialty—to which their first album is devoted—is period ballroom music from 18th and 19th century Europe and America. They’re great! 6:00PM

Slavonian Traveling Band – Blends traditional Bosnian, Sephardic, Gypsy, Croatian, Macedonian, and Serbian music into original songs in the American folk tradition. The acoustic ensemble sings haunting sevdalinkas (Bosnian for “blues”) and ballads in traditional harmonies, and represents a newly emerging “Californian-sevdah” style. In conjunction with their performance on the stage, they will be playing for the traditional Croatian dance performed by the CCSF Folk Dance Team, directed by Gail Barten. Gail Barten has been directing the City College of San Francisco Folk Dance Team and producing concerts for over 20 years. 6:40PM

Blue Blanket Improv – They are committed to inspiring laughter in others, exposing theater to those who might not attend otherwise, and to giving back to their community. Devoting their time and skills to bring free entertainment to residents of San Francisco and the Bay Area, they are a dedicated group of improvisational actors and comedians. 7:20PM

Oak, Ash, & Thorn – On the scene since the early 70s, Oak, Ash, & Thorn—OAT for short—has created a grand Bay Area tradition of bibulous and sonic excess. OAT is an a capella singing group that draws its repertoire primarily from English Traditional music. They also sing British Music Hall, American Folk, Scottish Folk, Irish Folk, TV Jingles, and Babylonian Beer Hymns. The only thing they don’t sing is Barbershop. At least, not yet... 8:00PM

The Aswan Dancers – A San Francisco based troupe dedicated to entertaining and educating the public about Middle Eastern culture through music and dance. They will be performing various styles of Egyptian dance from folkloric to modern, including what is known as “belly dance.” Aswan is led by Amina Goodyear. She is also a dance teacher. 8:40PM

Shay Black with Mariel Vandersteel – Shay was born in Dublin, Ireland and moved to Berkeley in 1995. A long term resident of Liverpool, his broad repertoire of Irish songs draws from a rich tradition of sea music. Since arriving in the US he has organized an ongoing Sunday night music and song session at the Starry Plough Pub. He is the eldest sibling of the famous ‘Black Family’, and is also a member of the Nauticus Band. 9:20PM

AJ Roach – Indy-folk? Neo-traditional? Alt Americana? However you want to classify him, his songs have a classic feel to them without being musty copies of traditional styles. A genuine folk-singing troubador for the college radio generation. 10:00PM

The Main Stage – Sunday

M'Earth Tones – Enjoy inspirational music from the sacred to the silly, featuring songs from the Renaissance, South America, PDQ Bach, folk traditions, and lovingly rendered for your listening pleasure. The director is Kris Yenney. 4:00PM

The World Harmony Chorus – Music from African, South American, European, and American Gospel traditions. A community chorus that rehearses in Berkeley and Mountain View, the chorus is open to singers of all ages and abilities, with no prior singing experience required. Director Daniel Steinberg is a member of Hillbillies From Mars 4:30PM

Jeanie and Chuck's Country Roudup- performs an entertaining mix of honky tonk, bluegrass, and old-time on acoustic instruments. They share a love for the straightforward honesty, the unrestrained emotions, and the spirited delivery of country music. 5:00PM

Midlife Chrysler – Home spun music from friends of over 25 years. Eclectic mix of American Folk, American Bluegrass and American Cheese. You can often find them playing somewhere between Livermore and Martinez and so we welcome them here to San Francisco and the San Francisco Free Folk Festival. 5:30PM

Sylvia Herold & Chuck Ervin – Sylvia Herold, currently of Wake The Dead, and Chuck Ervin, of the Wakefield Jazz Quartet, will present a mix of vintage country, swing, and folk music. Their vocal duets will feature Sylvia on guitar and Chuck on bass. 6:00PM

The Shots – will be playing a set of Irish, Bluegrass, old-time, Cajun and Original tunes. Their tunes will have you tapping your toes and swaying gently to the music. Their repertoire ranges from Balfa Brothers to Johnny Cash to Elvis and everything in-between. Who knows, you may be dancing in the back. 6:40PM

Dunsmuir Scottish Country Dancers – A demonstration dance team in full traditional costume. Beloved Festival participants, the group will perform on the main stage and also lead a workshop! They are delightful to watch and to dance with, communicating the combination of elegance and power unique to Scottish Country. 7:20PM

Jimmy Bruno with The Lazy Boys - play Americana music with Hawaiian and folk influences; something the band calls Ha-fo-cana! The focus of the band is songwriting, and is influenced by everything from the Beatles to Muddy Waters. They bridge the different genres by finding common ground and they create something new. 8:00PM

Broceliande – Celtic music from the British Isles and the Medieval and Renaissance music of the European courts, castles and countrysides. Featuring stellar vocal and instrumental harmonies, their entrancing sound is built on the interweaving of up to 4-part vocals with the lyrical music of the Celtic harp, octave mandolin, cello, guitar, flutes, whistles, percussion, harmonica, and melodian. 8:40PM

Richard Adrianowicz & Peter Kasin – Sea shanties were the work songs of the sailors. Come join in a tradition of powerful group singing. Richard & Peter have loved this music years & recommend the Hyde Street Pier to sing and learn more about this music. Come all & help us close this festival & in grand style. 9:20PM

Hope you enjoyed the festival this year!

A Sampling of Dance Events

Bulgarian/Armenian Dance with Asha Goldberg. Simple Armenian and Bulgarian folk dances, done to beautiful and lively music. Most of these dances are commonly done in recreational folk dancing. All are line dances.

Waltz/Argentine Tango/East Coast Swing with the Metronome Ballroom. The Metronome Ballroom in San Francisco features lessons and parties in all popular ballroom styles including Lindy Hop, Argentine Tango, Swing, Fox-trot, Waltz, Cha Cha, Salsa, Merengue, West Coast Swing, Hip Hop, Latin, and many others.

Scottish Dance with the Dunsmuir Scottish Dancers. This is a workshop in Scottish Country Dancing, the social form of Scottish dance. Participants of all ages are welcome. Partners are not needed. Wear comfortable shoes.

Square Dance with Jim Saxe. In this session, caller Jim Saxe will introduce the basic moves and lead a series of dances chosen for the enjoyment of beginners and old hands alike. Music will be provided by Kathrine Gardner on fiddle, Mark Kartman on guitar, and David Brown on banjo.

Lindy Hop (Charleston variation) with David Blood. Lindy Hop originated in Harlem in the 1930s and flourished there and throughout the world along with swing music. The original form of swing dancing, it is relaxed, down to earth, joyful, and incredibly fun. It is very connected to the music and includes much improvisation.

About the San Francisco Folk Music Club

This Festival is sponsored by the San Francisco Folk Music Club (SFFMC). Founded in 1949, the club currently has approximately 1,500 members. This Festival is only one of the Club's many activities. Every two weeks, members gather at the home of Faith Petric, the longtime heart of the club, for an evening of singing and jamming. Every 2nd Saturday, the SFFMC hosts a Hootenanny night at the Café International on Haight, at Fillmore, in San Francisco. The Club also hosts three musical campouts every summer, and Camp Harmony, an annual New Year's camp for members. Six times a year, the Club publishes the Folknik newsletter, an incredibly rich resource of folk and acoustic music events.

SFFMC membership is only $10 per year – to join, visit the Folk Club table at the festival, in the main lobby. Or, download a membership form from the website, //www.sffmc.org/. The SFFMC is located at 885 Clayton Street, San Francisco, CA 94117. For more information, call 415-661-2217.

Hungry? Visit our festival Café in the first floor cafeteria.

The Café also features our famous Open Mic until 3pm daily, followed by the Café Cabaret. Purchase crafts in the Marketplace, located in the main hallway of the first floor.
